SPORTSMANSHIP

The 2012 Ontario Winter Games will celebrate sport excellence and will convey the message that sport is for life. The Games are athlete-centered, inclusive and green.

ALL PARTICIPANTS OF THE 2012 ONTARIO WINTER GAMES ARE EXPECTED TO:

- act as ambassadors for the local clubs and their Provincial Sport Organizations;
- participate in the spirit of fair play, cooperation and respect for others at all times;
- respect the rules of their sport, the 2012 Ontario Winter Games and the Games Organizing Committee;
- perform to their best ability in every competition and accept with pride the result their effort brings;
- respect their opponents and the directions and decisions of coaches, managers and officials;
- be gracious in both victory and defeat;
- respect the rights of the residents in the host communities;
- regard participation in the 2012 Ontario Winter Games as a privilege;
- conduct themselves in a manner that ensures a safe and harassment-free environment for all participants.

DEFINITION OF HARASSMENT:

Harassment is defined as "a course of vicious comment or conduct that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome".

It is the policy of the 2012 Ontario Winter Games Committee that every employee and member of the 2012 Ontario Winter Games Committee can expect to be afforded a sport and work environment free of harassment and to be treated with respect and dignity. The 2012 Ontario Winter Games Committee is committed to providing a quality sport experience for all its members, staff, and volunteers. Therefore the 2012 Ontario Winter Games Committee does not tolerate any form of harassment, ie., zero tolerance. Zero tolerance is defined as meaning that no level of harassment is acceptable. The 2012 Ontario Winter Games Committee will also not accept a hostile atmosphere. This may be defined as an atmosphere of tolerance for behavior, language, or treatment of individuals which undermines their personal power, creates personal discomfort, or jeopardizes their career aspirations. The 2012 Ontario Winter Games Committee will act quickly on any complaint of harassment with the goal of resolving the situation fairly and of preventing future occurrences.

Breaches of the Code of Conduct are divided into two types: minor infractions and major infractions. Minor infractions by athletes are dealt with informally by the Head Coach. Minor infractions involving coaches, managers, as well as Major infractions involving any participant of Ontario Winter Games, are dealt with more formally by the Ontario Winter Games Discipline Committee.

Emergency Plan for the 2012 Ontario Winter Games

(To be circulated to bus monitors, coaches, officials, and any other individuals that will be chaperoning at the event.)

Bus Monitors Responsibilities

- The Bus Monitors will be assigned by PSOs from the group of Coaches.
- There will be a minimum of 2 Bus Monitors per bus
- Before the event, all drivers and bus monitors will be briefed on the events emergency plan.
- Each bus monitor in turn shall brief their specific group of athletes, on route, on their specific entry and the designated exit points. They will also state "If there is a fire emergency within any of the surrounding buildings, the plaza will have to be evacuated for the fire department to gain access.
- Please remain calm & listen for instructions from the MC and your bus monitors who will be escorting you into Opening Ceremonies."
- When directed by the Communications Manager they shall lead them to the specific predetermined area (see map below).

Instructions to Participants on Fire Procedures

In the event of Fire

While you are in the events plaza:

- Remain calm
- Listen for evacuation instructions from the Master of Ceremonies
- Leave the area by the pre-described route when directed by the Master of Ceremonies and Games Security
- There will be a public address system for the event. It will be tested and the contact person will be added to the emergency staff list.
- If a fire alarm is activated in any of the surrounding buildings this evacuation shall be implemented immediately in accordance with the approved Emergency Plan.

Instructions to Participants Requiring Assistance

There are approximately 130 Wheelchair athletes that will be attending the Opening Ceremonies. They will be accompanied by 42 support personnel (ratio is 3:1). Support staff will take direction from the MC and Games Security in directing the persons they are responsible for, accordingly.

In the event of Fire

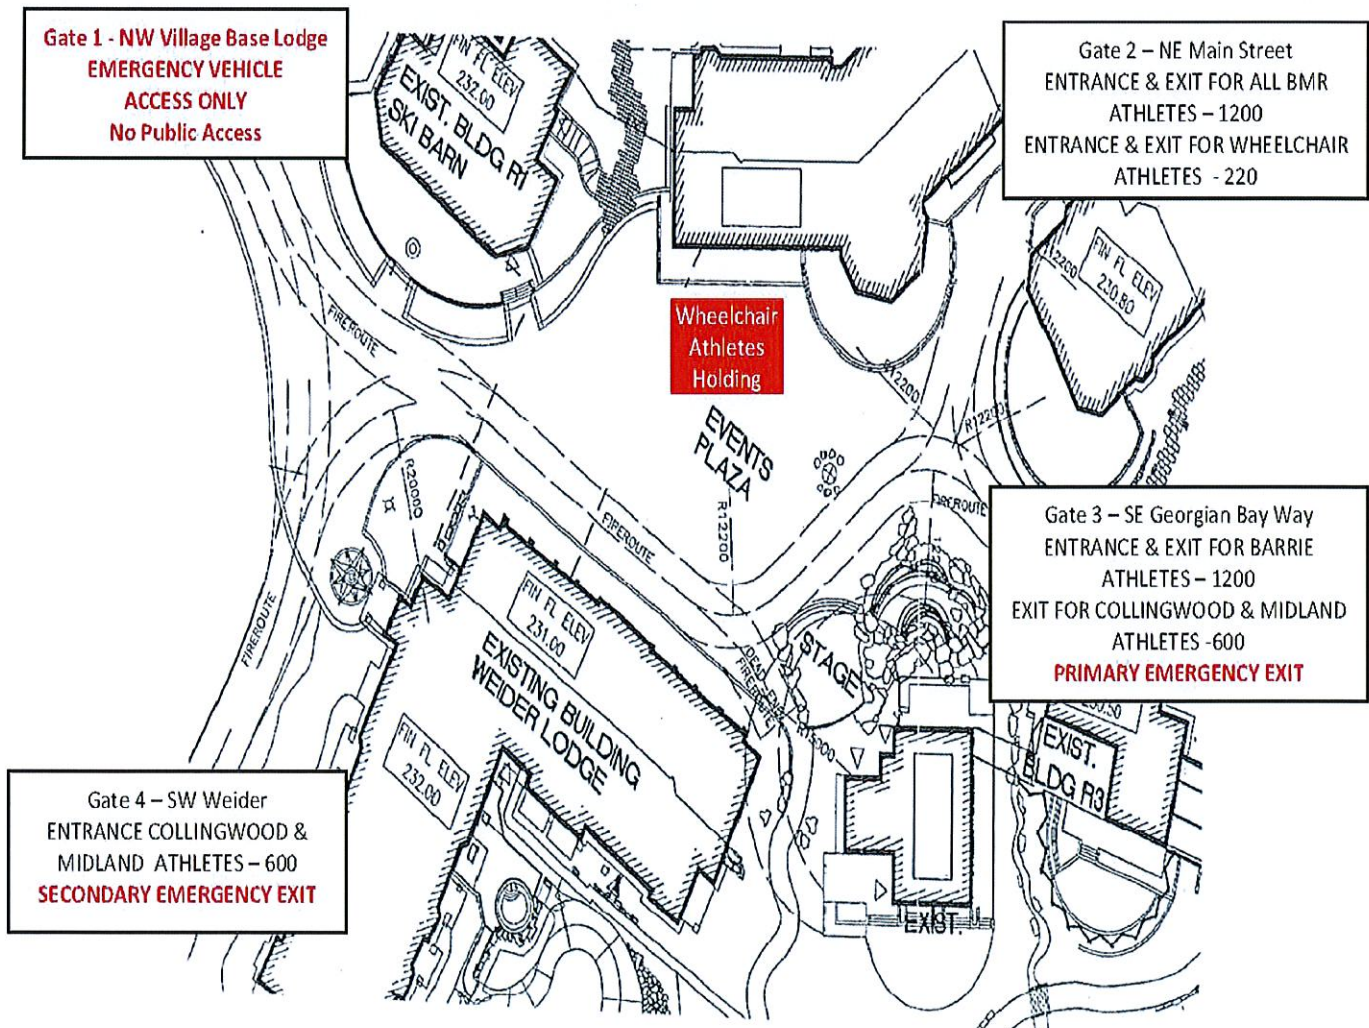

While you are in the events plaza:

- Remain calm
- Listen for evacuation instructions from the Master of Ceremonies
- Leave the front of the stage area to the middle of the Events Plaza as directed by the Master of Ceremonies and Games Security. Your support staff will assist you from the stage area to a predetermined area in the middle of the Events Plaza
- Participants will exit the Events Plaza, with the assistance of their support personnel, once a safe route of passage has been determined.
- Once clear of the plaza, participants will assemble in a safe area, clear of all fire routes and any hazards. Transportation Chair will be contacted to arrange transportation from this area.
- If a fire alarm is activated in any of the surrounding buildings this evacuation shall be implemented immediately in accordance with the approved Emergency Plan.
